

Buying Time in the Great Cloak Room.

You measure the helpfulness of any thing meant to be helpful by its timeliness—so, with two months and more of actual wearing time for summer suits, you must be interested in these items below—twice reduced—reduced for the clearing sale and now again reduced after our semiannual inventory, wherein we find many desirable lots that are too small or too many, or broken sizes, and a few garments too much handled to be as clean as our high standard of neatness demands.

The items of to-day only give a hint of things in store for you Monday—every summer suit, skirt, waist, wrapper, etc., is priced in your favor—

ANNUAL SALE OF HOUSEKEEPING GOODS

MANAGERS of Hotels, Boarding Houses, Restaurants, Rooming Houses, Boarding Schools, and Public Institutions of all kinds, Stewards of Steamboats, as well as the Housewives, should attend this Great Economic Sale of Housekeeping Goods, which begins to-morrow. You can supply present wants and lay aside for future needs advantageously—both as to prices and quality.

The Greatest Annual Linen Sale Ever Inaugurated

From every linen-making mart of the Old World comes the news of bigger prices. The next flax crop will not be gathered for a year to come, and the last crop was a partial failure—hence the present high market prices. Anticipating this, we bought months ago for cash in large quantities, and to-morrow you share with us our good fortune. It will be a long time before you can have such an opportunity again.
